

Make a scrapbook of Second World War images and write captions for each one. Consider how the people in the photographs may be feeling.

The World Wars

Carry out research and write a report about the First World War. Record information as notes on a mind map first, under headings such as causes, warring nations, key events, front line, home front and how the war ended. Use your mind map to help you write your report. Include a title, an opening paragraph, a timeline of key events, subheadings, detailed facts, precise topic vocabulary and images with captions.

Use a range of sources to find out about the following important events, which involved Britain during the Second World War: Battle of Britain, the Blitz and D-Day. Use bullet points to write a list of key findings about each event.

Recreate

Using some junk materials you have at home, create a model air raid shelter. Will you choose an Anderson shelter, a Morrison shelter, or maybe, just the Underground platform?

Find some wartime recipes and make a typical meal using foods that would have been rationed at the time. Can you work out the nutritional value of the meal?

Britain at War!

Britain and its inhabitants have fought in or endured several significant conflicts throughout history. Use a range of sources to find out about the conflicts listed and Britain's involvement. Record your findings, ensuring that you include the name of conflict, date, countries or people involved, one major cause and one major consequence of the conflict. • Norman Conquest of England • Wars of the Roses • English Civil War • Napoleonic Wars • Crimean War • First World War • Second World War

Experts developed different weapons, innovations and technology during the First and Second World Wars to help each side defeat their enemies. Examples include artillery, aircraft and radar. Find out about the weapons, innovations, and technology developed, then create an information poster about one development that interests you. Include a title, images with captions and detailed facts.
