

Harrow Lodge Primary School's

Stars of the Week Newsletter 17.3.2023

R1

Meshack for excellent listening and concentration during bucket time.

R2

Majus for his amazing performance of the Evil Pea, during a retell of the story 'Supertato'.

1A

Brian for trying so hard with his reading and moving up a band.

1B

Lorin for her recreation of Coco Chanel's Little Black Dress on International Women's Day.

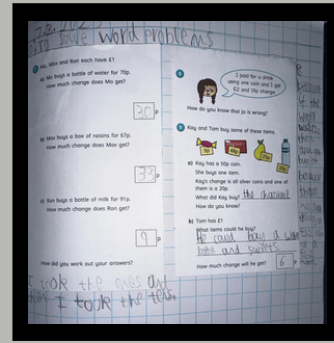

2A

Zayyan for his beautiful flower artwork.

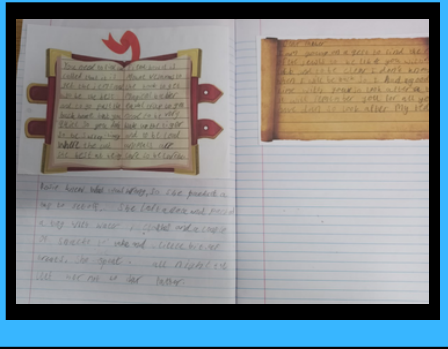

2B

Adam, for working hard in Maths, solving word problems.

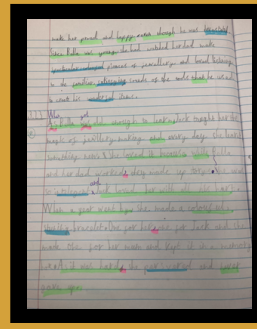

3A

Evie for working hard to write a traditional tale.

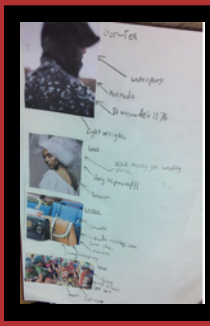

3B

Adelaide, for using good subordinate clauses and interesting vocabulary in her traditional tale.

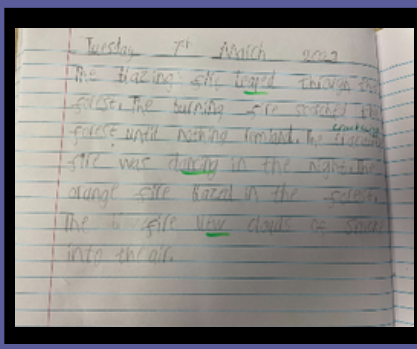

4A

Eliza for carefully considering the design features of fabrics and their properties in Design and Technology.

4B

Louis, For working hard to understand how to use personification in his writing.

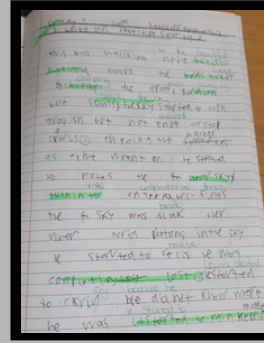

5A

Isabella for her beautifully imaginative drawing of a farm.

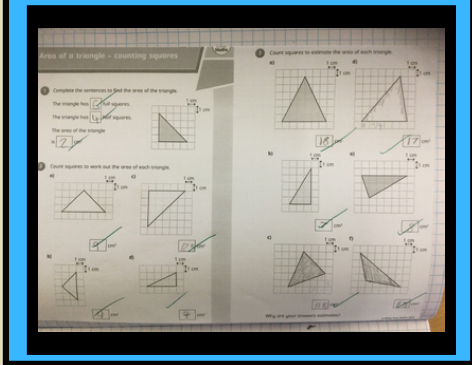

5B

Stanley for his efforts in English and his beautiful descriptive writing for form a setting

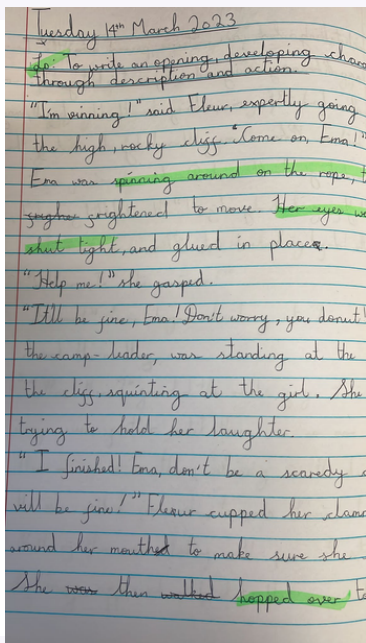

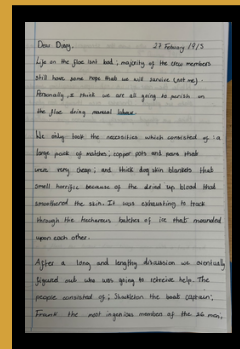

6A

Noah for his amazing work on shape and sharing his ideas with the class.

6B

Kayla for her emotional diary entry of life on the floe during Shaketon's expedition in 1915. Well done.

This week's presentation award goes to ...
Gurkeerat in 5A

